SOUTHPORT WHISKY CLUB

Club Member

Privately Owned Bottle

Private Whisky Bottle Sales for Southport Whisky Club

Terms and Conditions for Bottle Owners (Club Members)

Definitions

The Bottle Owner – A Southport Whisky Club Member who currently owns the bottle of whisky and wishes to sell it.

Southport Whisky – The management team who run Quintrox Limited t/a Southport Whisky (Co. No. 6908583). In this arrangement, the company acts as an intermediary for the Bottle Owner.

The Buyer – Anyone who wishes to purchase bottles from Southport Whisky.

Listing Your Bottle

- Only Southport Whisky Club Members can sell their privately owned bottles of whisky through the Southport Whisky website.

- Southport Whisky is the intermediary in this process.

- In order to sell your bottle on the website, you will be emailed a Bottle Owner's Form, where you must provide the following information:
    - The full details of each bottle for sale;
    - The sale price for each bottle;
    - Confirmation that you are over 18 years old;
    - Confirmation that the bottle is owned by you;
    - Confirmation that the bottle is authentic;
    - Confirmation that the bottle has its original seal;
    - Details of any wear and tear to the bottle;
    - The fill level and condition of the bottle.

- When your completed form is returned to Southport Whisky, this acts as a binding contract between the two parties.

- Once the form has been accepted by Southport Whisky, you will be asked to pay the listing fee by bank transfer. The listing fee is £12 per bottle for 12 weeks.

- Payment of the listing fee confirms the Bottle Owner's instruction to Southport Whisky to list the bottle for sale for the specified Listing Period, subject to these Terms and Conditions.

- Southport Whisky Club Members can list bottles on www.southportwhisky.co.uk for 12 weeks for a fee of £12 per bottle. This fee is non-refundable.

- The only other fee will be a charge of 3% of the gross bottle price. This will be taken from the proceeds before they are transferred to the Bottle Owner.

Delivery and Responsibility for the Bottle

- The Bottle Owner (Club Member) will send or deliver their bottle to Southport Whisky at their own cost and risk.

- Once received by Southport Whisky, the bottle becomes our responsibility.

- The Bottle Owner's name and contact details will not ordinarily be disclosed to Buyers, unless disclosure is required by law or is reasonably necessary to resolve a transaction, complaint, legal claim or regulatory matter.

- In the case of an unsuccessful sale during the 12-week Listing Period The Bottle Owner (Club Member) will be responsible for having the bottle returned to them or arranging collection.

Pricing and Listing

- The Bottle Owner (Club Member) will decide the sale price of their bottle.

- Southport Whisky will photograph the bottle and upload it to the website for sale.

- The Listing Period begins when the bottle is first published on the website and continues for 12 weeks (84 calendar days).

Inspection and Rejection

- If the bottle arrives and is rejected by Southport Whisky because it is not as described on the Form completed by the Bottle Owner, including concerns regarding authenticity, a broken seal, fill level or inaccurate description, the Bottle Owner will be responsible for the return of the bottle to them.

Marketing and Sale

- Southport Whisky will be responsible for marketing this service, although the website already has a good level of traffic from both Club Members and the general public.

- Private Sales of this nature will be sold on the Southport Whisky website in the same way as all other commercial bottles, except as set out below.

- The Buyer will pay for delivery with mandatory insurance at 4% of the sale price. This covers Southport Whisky for any issues arising during delivery, including the bottle being broken or lost by the courier. In this instance the buyer receives a full refund and The Bottle Owner will still receive their proceeds in full, after applicable fees.

- If the Buyer wants to collect or arrange drop-off of the bottle, they can request not to pay delivery and insurance, as Buyers can do currently, at the end of checkout on the website.

Payment to the Bottle Owner

- The Bottle Owner (Club Member) will receive a payout from Southport Whisky within 14 days of conclusion of a successful sale.

Unsuccessful Sales

- In the case of an unsuccessful sale during the 12-week Listing Period:
    - The Bottle Owner (Club Member) will be responsible for having the bottle returned to them or arranging collection; or
    - The Bottle Owner can pay a further £12 to continue their listing on the Southport Whisky website.
    - The original £12 listing fee is non-refundable.

- If the bottle is not collected or returned within 4 weeks, storage charges of £2 per bottle per week will apply.
- If this continues beyond 6 months, the bottle will be resold by Southport Whisky in order to recover the storage costs.